

Mum-to-be hails heroes who saved two lives

A grateful mother-to-be has been reunited with the heroes who saved her life and that of her unborn child in a Dundee shopping centre. Cheryl Denton (30), from Charleston, didn't know she was pregnant when she had a heart attach at work in the Primark store in the Overgate Centre...

A grateful mother-to-be has been reunited with the heroes who saved her life and that of her unborn child in a Dundee shopping centre. Cheryl Denton (30), from Charleston, didn't know she was pregnant when she had a heart attach at work in the Primark store in the Overgate Centre...

Click on the article to download it in PDF format.