

Responders praised for saving the life of mum-to-be

The Courier and Advertiser, Saturday June 6, 2009

A Dundee Security guard helped save the life of a 33 year old women who collapsed in a city centre shop with heart failure. Overgate Centre employees Scott Kidd had only just completed training to use a 'shock box' defibrilaitor and day before the women....

The Courier and Advertiser, Saturday June 6, 2009

A Dundee Security guard helped save the life of a 33 year old women who collapsed in a city centre shop with heart failure. Overgate Centre employees Scott Kidd had only just completed training to use a 'shock box' defibrilaitor and day before the women....

Click on the article to download it in PDF format.